“The saints have no extra credits. Every saint is bound to love God to the utmost. There is no such thing as supererogation. If there were any superfluous credits, they could not be stored up for subsequent use. The Holy Spirit would have used them fully long ago . . . Therefore I claim that the pope has no jurisdiction over purgatory . . . If the pope does have the power to release anyone from purgatory, why in the name of love does he not abolish purgatory by letting everyone out?” —Martin Luther

“May I Come to the Lord’s Table?”

Each Lord’s Day, the Lord’s Supper is observed here at Trinity Presbyterian Church (ARP). If you are a visitor, please consider the following questions:

1. Have you been baptized and professed your Christian faith in a Protestant church, and are thereby a communicant member of such a church? Are you in good standing with your church?
2. Do you continue to place your faith in Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins as your single hope for eternal life?
3. Do you, in gratitude for your salvation and with the help of the Holy Spirit, rededicate yourself to God in a life of service in obedience to his Word?

The Bible calls all obedient servants of His to join with Him at this Supper in a spirit of joy and gratefulness. If you answered the above questions affirmatively, we welcome you to the Lord’s Table. The Bible also issues a solemn warning to the unrepentant and disobedient that, lest they incur further judgment upon themselves, they should refrain from participating.

If you have any questions about your participation here, or about any other spiritual matter, please speak to one of the elders or to the pastor.
